The event takes place at the Candid Galleries in Islington with each of the four weeks covering specific disciplines. The fair provides a platform for over 200 individual artists across the entire art and design spectrum to show their latest work.

With its dynamic mix of both emerging young artists and those with established reputations, the ICADF is a unique event.

Candid Arts Trust is a registered charity and has been organising the ICADF for seven years.

Stands are available from £180 for 2sqm of floor space (4.8 sqm of hanging space)

The event's advertising will include national and local press, 20k invitations (unlimited number for each exhibitor), 40k leaflet distribution, 1k poster distribution, email and web ads.

Admission is free.

To submit your entry for the selection process please complete the online application form.

There is no charge to apply. Successful applicants will then be emailed a link to the payment page. (A 50% deposit is required to secure your space with the balance due 4 weeks before the show). Also included in the stand fee is a years FREE membership to the Candid Arts Network where you can upload images, videos and information to your personal profile.
